STATE-OWNED ROAD PROPOSED BY SMITH

To Extend From Chicago, Ill., to Savannah, Ga.

WOULD REDUCE FREIGHT RATES

Governor-Elect Hoke Smith Declares That Such a Line Would Make the Rates So as to Have Great Weight on Trade Relations with the South.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—O proposition to establish a state-owned railroad from Chicago to Savannah, Ga., was suggested to Corporation Counsel Ellis, by Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia, in a letter received Friday. Governor Smith declared that such a line would reduce freight rates and would have a great influence on the trade relations with the South. The letter said:

"I am much interested in the railroad rates from the lakes to Georgia. Our state owns a railroad from Atlanta to Chattanooga and there is a strong sentiment in favor of extending it to Savannah. If Cincinnati could reclaim control of the line built by its citizens, from Cincinnati to Chicago, and Cincinnati and Chicago could join a movement for the construction of a line from Chicago to Cincinnati, there might be made a through line from Chicago to Savannah, operated solely for the purpose of paying expenses and interest on the actual cost of construction without the burdens of water stock and bonds.

"Such a line would prove beneficial not only to the great cities through which it passed, but to a broad territory adjacent to the line. It would reduce freight rates more than 25 per cent. It would have a most marked influence upon our trade relations."

Opposes Stricter Rules.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 18.—At a meeting of business men Friday, Mayor Rhett was directed to wire Senator Tillman and Congressman Lever to oppose the amendment asking stricter rules for the admission of immigrants, which it is feared might seriously interfere with the immigration movement in the south Atlantic states, and in particular with the establishment of the regular immigrant line to Charleston for distribution in this section of the country.

The fire was caused by the overturning of a lighted lamp. An explosion in the saloon owned by P. T. COTTON INTERESTS BADLY DAMAGED

By Legislation In the Different States.

SO DECLARES HENRY HESTER

Secretary of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange Severely Criticizes the Boykin Bill, Now a Law in State of Georgia.

New Orleans, Feb. 18.—Henry G. Hester, secretary and statistician of the New Orleans cotton exchange and consulting statistician of the census bureau at Washington, D. C., said that there is far more danger to the legitimate cotton interests of the south in the current tendency of legislative thought in the Southern states than there is in bumper crops, and market manipulation because laws such as those now pending in Alabama, Arkansas, Texas and Tennessee which do not discriminate between necessary trade facilities and unnecessary bucket shops, cannot fail, if enacted, to adversely affect the farmer and spot cotton merchant by permanently placing both at a disadvantage in marketing the crop.

"We of the South, as a people, are too much given to the following of false counsels and all too frequently injure our own best interests in a misguided effort to accomplish the impossible," said Mr. Hester. The Boykin law of Georgia although well meant, has thus far driven out legitimate hedge trading and the circulation of helpful market news bulletins, but has not eliminated the bucket shop. The Mayfield bill, in Texas, if enacted, will injure the cotton interests in that state in every way, because under it the cotton producer will be completely at the mercy of the buyer, the latter knowing market conditions and the former being denied that all-important assistance. The same conditions will exist i nall states where such legislation is enacted.

"Is is easily possible to frame, pass and enforce a law which will drive out the bucket shops and to so restrict the operations of legitimate exchange brokers as to eliminate the objectionable gambler. But such a law cannot be drawn up by men who have not made a comprehensive study of the technical requirements of the cotton trade at large.

"In my opinon, many of the lawmakers of the south do not realize the huge importance to the cotton-growing states of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange. If they did, such measures as the Boykin and Mayfield bills would never be seriously considered for a moment.

"Texas legislators have now to make a choice between the Watson bill in the senate and the McGregor bill and Mayfield senate bill on the other. The two first, in my judgment, will acomplish at that is desired in the interest of cotton growers, capitalist, and cotton spinner.

"Safeguards can be enacted to effectually prevent indiscriminate, gambling by irresponsible parties who idle their time day after day watching for telegraph dope in a bucket shop, and that will prevent others who have no cotton and never expect to have any, from using an immensely vaulable adjunct as a medium for simon-pure gambling.

"To accomplish these ends, however, it is neither necessary nor desirable that there should be swept away in their entirely trade regulations which have reduced the cost of handling the cotton crop from any where between $5 and $1 per bale in years gone by to one-tenth of these sums.

"Broad-minded men like Harvie Jordan and his able lieutenants at the head of the state divisions of the Southern Cotton association, do not, I am quite sure, favor extreme measures. They do not, I am certain, desire to destroy all that is good in an endeavor to correct evils that every fair-minded man agrees should be abolished. They recognize that there are brains and inteligence enough among our legislators to meet the issues that confront them in such manner as will not relegate us to ante-bellum customs which placed the cotton growers practically at the mercy of these with whom they are forced to deal."

Suffragists Headquarters Opened.

New York, Feb. 18.—The Interurban political equity council, which is to endeavor to convert New York city to woman suffrage, opened headquarters at the hotel Martha Washington Friday. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, chairman of the council made a statement in which she said.: "We have opened headquarters and we are going to stay until the women are converted. The time when great work was done by great meetings has passed. We do not under-estimate what they do but we put more faith in printers' ink."

Large Settlement Made.

New York, Feb. 18.—One of the largest settlements ever made by a railroad company in a suit for personal injuries was closed Friday when the action of Edward Kleist, of New Rochelle, for $200,000 damage against the New York Central Railroad company was settled for $50,000. Mr. Kleist, who is 50 years old, was riding in a New Haven car on December 19, 1905, when a Harlem train crashed into it. Mr. Fleist suffered a broken hip, became paralyzed and lost the power of speech.

JURY FINDS FEIST GUILTY OF MURDER

Verdict Carries With It the Death Penalty.

MURDERED MRS. ROSA MANGRUM

Woman Disappeared from Nashville, Tenn., and Her Body Was Found in the Ohio River Near Cairo, Ills., a Month Later.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 18.—After one of the most stubbornly fought legal batties, Dr. J. Herman Feist, a prominent physician of this city, was found guilty of murdering Mrs. Rosa Mangrum.

The verdict carries with it the death penalty.

Mrs. Mangrum, who had been under the care of Dr. Feist, disappeared on Dec. 19, 1905, and her body was found in the Ohio river at Cairo, Ills., on Jan. 25, 1906. A few days before the disappearance of Mrs. Mangrum she drew something like $1,400 from a local bank and announced that she was going to Chicago. She left her boarding house on the night of her disappearance at the railway station, and that was the last ever seen of her alive.

The evidence against Dr. Feist was purely circumstantial, the most salient features of which was that he deposited in a local bank the sum of $500 a few days after the disappearance of Mrs. Mangrum.

Poison Case Put Off.

Summerville, Ga., Feb. 18.—The trial of G. L. Groover, a well known merchant, charged with poisoning Mrs. Kate Hooks, has been postponed. A temporary injunction was filed by the state's attorney before Judge Wright, so as to let the grand jury take the matter up at the regular term of the superior court, which convenes here on the second Monday in March. A large array of witnesses came to testify in the case, this being the third time that the case has been put off. Twice before it was put off owing to trouble in getting a justice of the peace to try the case.

Some older children had started a fire in the yard and little Alice, in playing around it, had her clothing ignited by the flames and before assistance could reach her she was horribly burned. She was buried by the side of her mother, who died just two years to a day before the little one.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 18.—Mr. H. Rubenstein possesses a valuable pearl found recently by one of his children in a raw oyster. The child bit into something hard and called his father's attention to it. Mr. Rubenstein saw at once that the pearl was of large size and took it to a local jeweler, who estimated it to be worth several hundred dollars, but sent it to New York experts for a report on it. The pearl is of good shape and appears to be flawless.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—Dr. Theodore Borth, editor of Die Nacion is to make an extended tour of the United States, beginning in April. Chicago, Feb. 18.—Frederick A. Holbrook, manufacturer's agent, was arrested Saturday by Deputy U. S. Marshall Griffith on a federal warrant charging him with conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law in dealing with furniture.

SUNDAY A BIG DAY AT THE TABERNACLE

Only Two Services, But They Were Impressive and Instructive.

GEORGE STUART AT NIGHT

The Big Tabernacle Was Crowded to Standing Room to Hear the Famous Tennessee Evangelist on His Opening Night—Monday's Services.

There were no morning services at the Tabernacle Sunday, the Bible Conference having given way, as is the usual Sunday morning custom, to the various churches of the city, when visiting divines filled the pulpit of the Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Episcopal churches. All places of worship were well filled, which was a fair demonstration of the religious fervor of the people.

At the Tabernacle Sunday afternoon Rev. David Vaughn Gwilym preached to a large congregation on "Habakkuk, the Prophet." As usual, his address was an eloquent and masterful effort, and those who heard him felt very much better for doing so.

The afternoon sermon was preceded by a delightful song service led by Prof. Butler, who possesses a remarkable tenor voice. As an instructor, Prof. Butler has accomplished a great deal in training the voices of the big choir.

The mere announcement that Rev. George R. Stuart, the famous Tennessee evangelist, would preach in the evening, was sufficient to attract a large crowd, and long before the hour of service people began arriving from every direction. There must have been in the neighborhood of 2,000 present as early as a quarter past 7, as every available seat was occupied and the aisles were congested. The benches on the rostum were also filled, and altogether it was probably the largest audience ever assembled under the Tabernacle roof.

PROF. J. R. C. BROWN

The Eminent Bible Scholar, Who Has Done Much Toward Making the Conference a Success.

After the usual song service and prayer, Dr. Clarence B. Strouse made a few appreciated remarks. He was followed by Dr. Stuart, who delivered an eloquent and original sermon on the text, "Awake! Awake! Put On Thy Strength." In his discourse it was noticeable that this eminent evangelist had lost none of his sense of humor and originality, and those who were fortunate enough to hear him were not disappointed. His remarks are tinged with just enough humor to make them palatable, and his manner of comparison and driving the truth home to the hearts of his hearers is remarkable. He spoke for more than an hour, during which time he proceeded to say a few things regarding whiskey drinkers, gamblers, theatergoers, etc. He did not neglect his allusion to the small boy who "played marbles for keeps," and the card parties where women gambled for "cut glass furniture" and the like. In arraigning the evils of gambling and other vices, he spared no effort to convince his hearers that it was wrong and against the laws of God. The entire sermon, from beginning to the closing of the last sentence, was grand, and full of earnestness for the cause of Christ.

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock Prof. J. R. C. Brown gave his Bible lecture and teaching. There is probably not in this country a more thoroughly posted man on the Book of God than Prof. Brown, and his daily meetings have proved great blessings to those who have attended the meetings regularly.

At 11 o'clock Dr. Gwilym delivered another of his delightful sermons, one of a series on "The Epistle of the Romans in Relation to Modern Thought," and in the afternoon Prof. R. V. Miller spoke to a fairly good audience on the Bible. Prof. Miller is a fine speaker, an excellent Bible scholar, and has created a good impression here.

The day's services were concluded by another stirring sermon by Dr. Stuart, who was again greeted by a crowded house.

Services today will be held as follos: 10 a. m., Bible lesson by Prof. Brown; 11 a. m., sermon by Dr Gwilym; 3 p. m., address by Prof. Miller, and 7:30 p. m., sermon by Dr. Stuart.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

Dispute as to Boundary Line of Property Referred to Judge H. Davis.

There is being argued before Judge Horatio Davis of this city an important land case, and a case which will interest the people throughout this section.

It is a case in which R. N. Dowling is plaintiff and W. A. Sparks is defendant, the suit being to establish a boundary line between the property of the two, both claiming a certain tract of land involved in this manner.

There has been two sittings of the court before Judge Davis as referee, and Friday of the past week the hearing was adjourned until a future date, to be set by the referee.

This case is full of interest, and we quote from the current number of The Starke Telegraph the following regarding it:

"From the many complications arising from faulty sectionizing of township 7, range 20, and the blunder of a surveyor-general in designating as the east boundary for that township the resurveyed west boundary of township 7, range 21, this case stands probably unprecedented in the annals of land suits. It is field notes versus lines actually run and marked on the ground. Mr. Sparks contends that the north line of his section 36 should run west from the section corner on the range line from what Dowling says is the northwest corner of sec. 31, tp. 7, range 21. This would make the depth of Mr. Dowling's section 25 considerably shorter than one mile, while that of section 36 would be much more than a mile. The north line of 25 is plainly marked, while Dowling claims that its south line has never been run, and contends that it should be located midway between the north line of 25 and the south line of 36.

"Thos. W. Fielding, Esq., of Starke, was Mr. Dowling's counsel and Hon. Jos. M. Rivers of Gainesville appeared for Mr. Sparks. The fight was very strenuous on both sides. The case involves many points never before passed on by a court, but both parties in the suit are confident that Judge Davis will make a fair and just decision. Among the witnesses two were from Starke—H. E. Lagergren, who made the survey and map for Dowling and was the principal witness, and W. Lake."

HALE VIOLATED THE PROHIBITION LAWS

That Was the Charge Upon Which He Got Himself in Trouble.

A SUNDAY NIGHT ARREST

Marshal Pinkoson Arrested Him and Found Fifteen Pint-Bottles of Whiskey in His Home—Fine of $500 and Costs or Sixty Days in City Jail.

Another haul was made by Marshal Pinkoson at a late hour on Sunday night, of the violators of the prohibition laws in this city, the victim this time being Edward Hale, colored, a hack driver about twenty four years of age, who was arrested at his home just after he had sold a party a bottle of whiskey, according to the statement of Officer Pinkoson. After making the arrest the officer searched Hale's home, where he states he found and confiscated fifteen pint-bottles filled with liquor.

Officer Pinkoson has suspected that Hale was selling liquor in violation of the law for sometime, but has not had sufficient proof to cause his arrest. He has been working quietly, however, on the case, with the result that the webs were drawn tightly about him Sunday night, when the arrest and conviction followed.

Hale was arraigned in the mayor's court Monday morning, when the evidence and the liquor, which was a part of the evidence, was sufficiently strong to convict, and he was assessed a fine of $500 and costs, or sixty days in jail, which is the limit in municipal cases. Not having the "wherewith" to settle his fine, Hale will spend his time in jail. When he will have finished his sentence with the city, the county authorities will no doubt take the matter up.

SMITH'S GREATER SHOWS.

This Refined Carnival Attraction Will be in Gainesville One Week.

The Smith Greater Shows, a carnival aggregation which has exhibited in various cities throughout the State, and which bears an excellent reputation for refined attractiveness, arrived in the city by special train from Lake City Sunday night, and began a week's engagement here under the auspices of the Gainesville Guards Monday night.

The management experienced considerable annoyance and delay in getting everything in readiness for the opening Monday night, and several of the attractions were not ready. One of the most aggravating difficulties was the capsizing of the lion cage, resulting in painful injury to Mollie, one of the trained lionesses. The trained animal show is one of the best features of the carnival, and Mollie is one of the main "actresses," but veterinarians do not pronounce her injuries serious, and she will be ready to take part on the program in a day or two.

There are many good features with this aggregation, which appears to be one of the cleverest of its kinds on the road, and they will no doubt enjoy a good business here, as Gainesville has not had the opportunity of witnessing a good, clean attraction of this kind for some time.

The attraction carries a first-class brass band, which gave its opening concert Monday afternoon.

The carnival is located on South University street, corner Masonic.

DANDY DIXIE MINSTRELS.

This Musical Aggregation Will be Seen at Opera House Tonight

With the biggest olio feature ever introduced in minstrelsy, a $10,000 spectacular first part and a new musical comedy afterpiece, the "Dandy Dixie Minstrels" will offer the season's most notable offering at the opera house tonight. The entertainment begins in the "Royal Palm Grotto," where Messrs Voelckel & Nolan's company of clever colored performers will be seen in a 20th Century first part. The olio comprises a host of novelties which were the special features at the New York Theatre Roof Garden last summer. Concluding with the farce "A Fowl Deed" and the famous "Cotton Pickers' Band" of solo musicians the "Dandy Dixie Minstrels" offer the best available talent in any minstrel organization of the decade. Among the all-star performers are James Crosby, the "Elongated comedian, six foot six inches" with dancing muscles from toe to crown; Campbell Brothers, the "black autocrats;" Williams and Stevens, comic impersonators; "The Toney Trio," "Dare-Devil acrobats," Benny Jones, "The Texas Teaser," H. S. Wooten, "Indian Territory Tenor;" John Prampin, "Comedy Juggler," and forty other head-line singers, dancers and merry minstrel men.

Rising From the Grave.

A prominent manufacturer, Wm. A. Fertwell, of Lucama, N. C., relates a most remarkable experience. He says: "After taking less than three bottles of Electric Bitters, I feel like one rising from the grave. My trouble is Bright's disease, in the Diabetes stage. I fully believe Electric Bitters will cure me permanently, for it has already stopped the liver and bladder complications which have troubled me for years." Guaranteed at all druggists'. Price only 50c.

The Typewriter.

Although he was not the first to devise a machine for typewriting, John Pratt won the distinction of inventing the first working typewriter that secured a sale. He was born in Unionville, S. C., on April 14, 1821, and in 1864, with his wife, he went to England, Pratt devoting his time to the invention of a mechanism which he designated the "pterotype," the first practical typewriter. Provisional protection to the invention was granted by the British government in February, 1864, and on Dec. 1, 1866, letters patent No. 3163 were granted to Pratt. On returning to the United States, in 1868, he secured letters patent in this country. Mr. Pratt was the first inventor of a machine in which a type wheel was moved by key levers, and he was the first man to make and sell typewriters, having sold several in London in 1867.

BIG CARNATIONS.

They Were Cultivated In England In Shakespeare's Time.

A florist says that we pride ourselves nowadays on the size of our carnations, but the florists of 300 years ago grew carnations three to four inches across, as large as any that we see, and thought nothing of it.

"All through Spain, southern France and Italy the carnation is the favorite flower and has been for hundreds of years, but along the Mediterranean there are few glass houses, for in protected situations and on southern slopes of hills even delicate flowers grow outdoors all winter long and bloom as freely at Christmas as in July.

"The big carnations, however, were not grown in Spain or Italy, but in England outdoors during the summer time and before glass houses were known. They may have grown just as large carnation flowers in Spain as in England at that time, but in England there was record made of the fact and also of the size, while in Spain there was not. Shakespeare mentions carnations and gillyflowers, or July flowers, together as blooming at the same season, which shows that the carnation was then a summer flower, whereas in our greenhouses it is now a winter bloomer. How the florists of those days treated the plants to obtain blooms of such size nobody knows, for old time florists grew flowers instead of writing books about them. So all we know is that they had very large carnations in Queen Elizabeth's time without knowing how they were grown."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"WHISKEY" COLD CURES.

Danger of Using Alcoholic Mixtures or Coal Tar Tablets.

The most dangerous thing that one can do when affected with a cough or cold is to use a medicine that contains whiskey or a tablet that is made of some coal tar product. Putting aside all moral objections to filling up with whiskey or drugs because one has a cold, the injurious physical effect should be sufficient to keep one from using these strong medicines.

The most sensible as well as the only scientific way to treat a cough or cold is by inhaling medication that will kill the germs and give relief to the irritated mucous membrane in the nose, throat and lungs.

Among the few remedies that are used in this way, Hyomei stands pre-eminent. It is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, and the first breath of its healing air relieves the irritation, and its continued use soon effects a thorough cure.

The best people in Gainesville always keep Hyomei at hand in the winter months, and at the first symptoms of a cold or bronchial trouble, use the remedy and prevent serious and lasting illness. If you have any doubts as to the effects of Hyomei in curing coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles, the guaranatee J. W. McCollum & Co. give with every outfit should convince you of its curative powers. A Hyomei outfit costs $1, and if it does not give satisfaction J. W. McCollum & Co. will return your money.

Extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, can be obtained for 50c, but the complete outfit is usually enough to cure several colds.

Chewing and Dyspepsia.

The lean dyspeptic, taking a mouthful of chop, chewed it interminably.

"Forty chews," he paused to say, "for every bite." And his jaws began to grind again.

"You make me laugh," his companion, a physiologist, returned. "Meat requires little, if any, chewing. You must have wasted a lot of chews in your time."

"Go on!"

"It's true. Vegetables require chewing, for they are digested largely by the alkaline mouth juices, but meat is digested by the acid stomach juices, and to chew it more than enough to make it go down easily does harm instead of good. The mouth alkalis, admixing with it, hinder the stomach acids' work.

"Chew vegetables indefatigably, my friend, but let your meat slip down unground."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The youngsters organized themselves into a gang under the name of the "Dirty Dozen," and, according to evidence recently submitted at the grand jury session, they have committed several robberies and two or three acts of arson during the past year, notable instances being burglaries at Arm and Silver Creek. Eleven members of the organization have been indicted by the grand jury on various charges, and the "Dirty Dozen" will be compelled to go to trial within the next few days. CUTICURA REMEDIES A PERFECT SUCCESS

"I wish to let you know that I have used one set of Cuticura Remedies—one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, but two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills—which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. A friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies which I did, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. If any of my friends should be troubled with the same disease, I will cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies, and if I know any one who wants to know how I cured myself, I shall be glad to tell them. Walter W. Paglusch, 207 N. Robey St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8 and 16, 1906."

PEACE AND MORALS ORDINANCE

In reference to the news item in Sunday's issue of The Sun anent the "Peace and Morals Ordinance" under consideration by the City Council, some people seem to labor under the impression that the expressions contained therein were those of the editor of The Sun. For the benefit of such persons we will say that the opinion of the editor, whenever he desires to express it in print, will be found on this, the editorial page, and not in the news columns. We fail to find anything so very objectionable in the ordinance, nor do we apprehend that anybody will be required to make oath as to the necessity of the article in order to purchase medicine from our druggists. Everything covered by the ordinance is prohibited by the State law, and the State officials could prohibit everything done on the Sabbath which the ordinance forbids. In reference to the contention of certain individuals that the Council cannot, under the State law, close the livery stables on Sunday, we respectfully cite them to section 3565 of the General Statutes, which provides that "Whoever follows any pursuit, business or trade on Sunday, either by manual labor or with animal or mechanical power, except the same be work of necessity, shall be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars." Does the ordinance contain this provision? If not the Sunday Observance League should get busy, for including livery stables in the ordinance will in no wise invalidate it. As to the city news editor's statement that the ordinance passed its second reading by a close vote, he evidently got his information unofficially, as we are informed that no member of the Council recorded his vote against the measure. The ordinance comes up on third reading tonight and will undoubtedly pass.

Four Greeks from Pensacola were drowned off St Andrews Bay during the early part of last week. The boat, which was a large schooner, was caught in a sudden squall off that port and capsized. The four men clung to the upturned both but were finally washed off by the waves and drowned. Several other boats were near, containing Greeks, but they were unable to render any assistance, as the waves were running high and several of the boats had their sails carried away. Three of the men are known to be John Argottas, Diomondos Orphanos and Gus Pandeleis, all sponge divers who were bound for Tarpon Springs to engage in that business during the season. The bodies have not been found, though the upturned boat has been recovered.

The Sun adds its unqualified endorsement to the following from The Live Oak Democrat: "Hurrah for that judge in Pensacola, who the other day fined a cruel-hearted wretch $100 and costs for riding a poor helpless pony to death on a pleasure trip about the city; and, also, hurrah for the officer who made the arrest and developed the guilt of the fellow! Cruelty of any kind is a fearful and repulsive thing to all good people, but there should be a double damnation for the iron-hearted degenerate who makes the helpless dumb creatures that serve us in hopeless slavery all their lives the victims of their brutal cruelty and pitiless inhumanity."

THE LAND LAWS.

Our Washington correspondent says nothing has raised more quiet yet relentless opposition to the President since his insistence on the passage of the rate bill than his determination to remodel the land laws of the West to prevent fraud in acquiring imperial slices of the public domain. Western Congressmen are in the majority in opposition to this course, but it will be noticed in scanning their interviews in the public prints that they are usually anonymous interviews. "A prominent Western Senator," or an "influential Western Representative," is the way that they usually mask their identity. None the less, a reform of the land laws is coming just as certainly as railroad legislation came. The President happens to know a good deal personally about the land situation in the West. He is not even dealing with a subject on which he has to study up as he did most effectively on the railroad question. He knows what grazing land frauds, timber land frauds, mineral land frauds and all the other sort of land frauds mean, because he has lived among the men that both commit them and suffer from them. Also he has the support of some of the best scientific experts in the government service in dealing with the problem. From the Geological Survey he has the experience of men who know mineral land, and have no more business sense than to work for the government for $2 500 a year when they could get two or three times as much on the outside. In the Forest Service he has the experience and reliability of men like Gifford Pinchot to support him, a man who has an independent income, and yet is willing to work for the good of the government service. These men are not the ones to recommend legislation that is not good for the general public.

Yet there is opposition. The representatives of vast financial interests say that the recommended land legislation is all wrong, and that it has its inception is the minds of men who have stolen millions of acres of land from the government and want to steal millions more.

No greater falsehood was ever advanced by the resident exponents of corporate interests. The land laws of the West need reforming. The public domain is now centered in the West, and it is there that there are thousands of acres of mineral lands, millions of grazing land, and hundreds of thousands of acres of timber land, all of which the President wants to save to the general wealth of the nation.

There is no department of the government in which grosser frauds have been committed than in the Land Office, and the sooner its rules are changed and its practices disinfected, the better it will be for the general public.

The Sun's suggestion that no person be voted for for alderman at the city election who does not pledge himself to vote against a renewal of the contract with the Gainesville Gas and Electric Power Company for lighting the streets of the city, has been endorsed by the public generally. An aldermanic ticket on this platform would be elected by an overwhelming majority, and the issue should be fairly made and squarely met. Mayor Thomas would be a good man to issue a call for a mass meeting to place a ticket in the field upon such a platform.

As the case now stands probably Admirals Retjesvensky and Nebogatoff wish they had gotten their sentences before they had to run the risk of meeting the Japanese.

The new duma is outspoken in its opposition to the Czar. Probably he won't mind so long as it is not explosive in its utterances.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

STARTLING STATEMENT MADE.

Hundreds of Infants Fed on Impure Milk.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—That thousands of infants in Illinois as well as many larger children are being sent to premature graves through taking into their stomachs in milk the same poisonous preparations that are used to embalm the dead, is indicated by a special report ready for submission to Governor Deneen. The report was made by Herman E. Schuknecht, the dairy expert of the state pure food commission. Assistant Commissioner Schuknecht pointed out that out of 35 cities visited, not one had escaped from its limits milk from unclean and unsanitary cans and vessels or milk not properly strained showing a deposit of filth in the bottom of bottles or other vessels and in other cities, skimmed milk was sold as standard and was adulterated with formaldehyde which authorites pronounce a poison much used as an embalming fluid.

Office Building Destroyed.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 18.—The office building and warehouse of the Hargis brothers on Main street, were consumed by fire Friday night. The loss is $10,000. It is believed the fire was of incendiary origin, but whether it is an outgrowth of the Breathitt county troubles with which Senator Hargis, senior member of the firm, is connected, can only be conjectured.

HIDDEN TREASURE.

New Zealanders Dig For Kauri Gum In the Ground.

Many New Zealanders find it profitable to dig for hidden treasure. That for which they dig, however, is not gold or Captain Kidd's ill gotten wealth, though it has a dull yellow color. It is kauri gum, a resinous substance which is the product of the kauri pine tree. The gum can be secured from the trunks of trees while they are alive, for it protrudes in lumps, but it is especially profitable to dig for it in the soil about the stumps remaining after the trees have been cut down. Sometimes chunks weighing as much as 100 pounds are taken up from the ground.

Digging for kauri gum is profitable, for the gum is used in the manufacture of varnish, and apparently it is one of those products of nature whose place cannot be filled by anything else which has yet been discovered. It has been found that it can be used in certain enamel paints, and this has had the effect of bringing the demand up to a point above the supply.

The kauri pine is a magnificent tree. It rises as straight as a needle to a height of from 150 to 200 feet and attains at times a diameter of fifteen feet. It is noted for its dark, dense foliage and is much used for masts for vessels constructed for the British navy.
